

Call for volunteers:

Do you have a passion for nature conservation and planetary action? Are you interested in learning more about biodiversity and Sustainable Development while actively participating in a globally recognised Forum? Are you fluent in English and French, or perhaps another language like Spanish? Do you live in Geneva or its nearby regions? And most importantly, are you available from 10 to 13 October 2023?

If you answered YES to all these questions, we invite you to apply and become part of our volunteer team for the IUCN Leaders Forum 2023 taking place in Geneva from 11 to 13 October 2023

The International Union for Conservation of Nature (IUCN) is looking for enthusiastic volunteers to contribute to the success of the second edition of the IUCN Leaders Forum. This event is scheduled from 11 to 13 October 2023, at the International Conference Centre Geneva (CICG) in Geneva. We are seeking volunteers based in the Geneva region who can assist in the days leading up to the Forum as well as during the event itself.

What's in it for you?

- Complimentary access to the Leaders Forum Sessions when not on duty
- Opportunities for learning and networking
- Free meals on volunteering days
- Volunteer Certificate

Roles and Responsibilities:

- Welcome and assist participants, addressing their inquiries.
- Attend Forum sessions and create concise summary reports.
- Scan and manage participant badges at venue and session entrances.
- Provide support for the live streaming platform for virtual participants.
