Registration

The conference is free of charge but registration is necessary via the conference website. Deadline for registration is 31 October 2014.

Practical Information

Conference Venue

The conference will be held at the Faculty of Humanities (KUA), University of Copenhagen, Karen Blixens vej 4, 2300 Copenhagen S.

Registration and the plenary session Friday morning will take place in Building 22 and the parallel panel sessions will take place in Building 27.

Directions and transport

Getting to and from the airport

Copenhagen Airport is serviced by most international airlines. The airport is situated at Kastrup 8 km from Copenhagen central. It is possible to travel by train, bus, metro and taxi between Copenhagen airport and Copenhagen central.

A taxi from the airport to Copenhagen city centre costs around 200 DKK and takes 20-30 minutes. Taxi companies among others are Taxinord, Tel: +45 48 48 48 48 and Amager-Øbro Taxi, Tel: +45 32 51 51

Getting from Copenhagen city centre to the conference venue/Campus

Bus: Bus number 12 and 33 runs regularly from the city centre and stop near the Campus area. Schedules can be found at the website of Movia (public transport in Greater Copenhagen).

Metro: The nearest metro station is Islands Brygge Station, which is approximately a five minutes' walk away from the conference venue. The metro line M1 (Vanløse/Vestamager) runs regularly between 5 am and 12 pm. For more information please visit The Copenhagen Metro's website.

Train: If you arrive by train to Copenhagen Central Station it is a 5 minutes' walk from the central station to the town hall square (Rådhuspladsen) where it is possible to take bus no. 12 or 33 to the Faculty of Humanities. If you arrive at Nørreport Station you could change to the metro M1 direction Vestamager and get off at Islands Brygge.

Car: You can park at the guest parking lot on Ørestads Boulevard.

For more information about travelling in Denmark go to www.rejseplanen.dk/ (journey planner)

Accommodation

There are no special hotel agreements, but please find a list of suggestions for hotels below. If you would like further information about where to stay and what to do while in Copenhagen the website 'Visit Copenhagen' can be helpful.

The conference venue is located at the Faculty of Humanities, which is in the part of Copenhagen called Amager. It is not far from the city centre with public transport. Thus, there are very good connections with the metro and busses from the city centre. A hotel in the city centre would work fine preferably close to a metro station.
