Platform for the submission of mobility funding Mobi.Doc

Welcome to the University of Lausanne website dedicated to the evaluation of Mobi.Doc mobility funding. Please read carefully the following points before beginning to detail your project:

- This site aims to facilitate the evaluation process by guiding you through the description of your project through a pre-formatted form;
- Each form contains Help that is designed to assist you in the description of your project;
- You may save your project and work on it again at your earliest convenience before submitting it;
- Reread your project carefully before submitting it. Keep in mind that once your project is submitted, the selection process begins;
- Each project will be handled within 10 weeks.

Good job!
