

THE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON NARRATIVE

VIRTUAL CONFERENCE
MAY 19-23, 2021

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

- The International Conference on Narrative is an interdisciplinary forum addressing all dimensions of narrative theory and practice
- The conference is held in collaboration with the International Society for the Study of Narrative (ISSN)
- This conference will bring together about 350 speakers to address issues of narrative from a variety of positions and perspectives

JOIN US

This year, by hosting an online conference, the Society hopes that this event can become more accessible, inclusive, and diverse. Participation is open to scholars, graduate students, and all other persons interested in narrative across disciplines and across media, and, thus, it welcomes submissions on the theory and interpretation of the novel, the short story, narrative poetry, history, biography, autobiography, memoir, film, television, journalism, comics and other graphic arts, music, performance, legal writing, medical case histories, and more.

PROPOSALS

We welcome proposals for papers and panels on all aspects of narrative in any genre, period, discipline, language, and medium. Papers, however, should be in English

PROPOSALS FOR PAPERS

Please provide the title and a 300-word abstract of the paper you are proposing; your name, institutional affiliation (where applicable), and email address; and a brief statement (no more than 100 words) about your work as well as any relevant publications, presentations, or projects in-progress

PROPOSALS FOR PANELS

Please provide a 700-word (max) description of the topic and of each panelist; the title of the panel and titles of the individual papers; and for each participant the name, email address, institutional affiliation/status as an independent scholar, and a brief statement (no more than 100 words) about the person's work as well as any relevant publications, presentations, or projects-in-progress

Proposals will be accepted until Nov. 15, 2020
